

SENATE PASSES BANK MEASURE

Action Brings Joy to Heart of President.

DECLARES NEWS IS "BULLY"

Upper House Also Agrees to Campaign Publicity and Reclamation Bills—Taft Has Secured as Much From Congress as Roosevelt Did at Any Single Session—Expects to Have More to Credit by Time of Saturday's Adjournment.

Washington, June 23.—The smooth sailing encountered by his administration measures in the senate during the past few days has brought a great joy to President Taft. He has already got as much or more from congress than President Roosevelt obtained in any single session, and when the record is completed on Saturday the president, it is said, will have to his credit one of the most impressive list of measures that any president since the civil war has got in equal time.

The president heard of the passage of the postal savings bank bill by the senate just about as he was to mount his horse for a ride through Rock Creek park. When he returned to the White House two hours later he was informed that two of his other measures, the campaign publicity bill and the reclamation bill, also had slipped through the senate and soon would be sent to the White House. "Bully!" exclaimed the president, when he learned of the latest developments at the capitol. The quick action on the publicity measure obviously was an agreeable surprise to the president. He had feared that it might cause some discussion in the senate and extend the date of adjournment beyond Saturday.

Calling Himself Amateur Banker. In speaking of the postal savings bank legislation the president remarked that he might be an amateur banker, but in this case he thought amateur banking was pretty good. This, of course, was a dig at Senator Dolliver of Iowa, who had criticized the president as an "amateur banker."

The passage of the postal savings bank bill in the form that the president desired it probably has given him as much personal satisfaction as any other legislation that he has obtained from congress. The president feels that in advocating the postal savings bank measure he was voicing the wishes of thousands who are without the influence to give adequate expression to their needs. It is this phase of the postal savings bank bill—the thought that a system has been established which will encourage thrift and saving among the poor—in which the president takes the greatest satisfaction.

THIS AND THAT

Battling Nelson has presented President Taft with a copy of his autobiography.

Lightning wiped out an entire flock of sheep, 40 in number, on the farm of William Beatty, near Bellefontaine, O.

During President Taft's sojourn at Beverly, Mass., Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel will sit on the lid in Washington.

Thomas Giffen, traveling salesman of Cincinnati, and E. H. Norris, chauffeur, were killed at Elizabeth, N. J., when their auto was hit by a train.
